

MoH spends EGP 2.3 bln to upgrade universal healthcare system hospitals ahead of January rollout

The health ministry is spending EGP 2.3 billion to upgrade healthcare facilities in the governorates where the first phase of the universal healthcare system will be launched. The initial stage is scheduled to be rolled out in January 2020 while the system is planned to be implemented nationwide by 2032.