

MoH to launch test run for automated universal healthcare system mid-September

The Ministry of Health will launch a test run for the automated universal healthcare system in Port Said mid-September. The ministry signed a USD 100 million deal with Vodafone UK to develop a computerized system for the new healthcare scheme in Port Said.