

Patients on waiting lists to be treated within universal healthcare system

Patients on waiting lists in the governorates where the universal healthcare system will be launched will join the universal healthcare system automatically, the health ministry announced, adding that 229,044 surgeries were carried out for patients on waiting lists.