

Universal healthcare system offers free cancer drugs

Patients with chronic diseases, including cancer, will receive free medications under the universal healthcare system. The health ministry has already provided more than 90 drugs for Port Said hospitals.