

British Embassy, AstraZeneca support young Egyptians to create innovative medical solutions

The British Embassy in Cairo and AstraZeneca are sponsoring 11 Egyptians to travel to the UK to visit the research and development labs of the leading pharmaceutical company in Cambridge.

The partnership between the British Embassy and AstraZeneca aims to encourage young Egyptian graduates in the faculties of pharmacy and medicine to develop innovative digital solutions in several therapeutic areas, including diabetes and oncology.