

Conference aims to raise awareness of family planning

Pharco Group is holding a conference to raise awareness of birth control medications. The group's Techno Pharma will roll out more birth control drugs amid a severe shortage in the market. The company already pumps 500,000 birth control pills a month into the market at affordable prices.