

25% of patients take unnecessary blood pressure drugs due to misdiagnosis (Al Ahram, Sep. 10)

The Egyptian Hypertension Society (EHS) has recommended using fixed-dose combination drugs for high blood pressure. During its annual conference, the EHS revealed that nearly 25% of patients take unnecessary blood pressure drugs due to misdiagnosis.