

MoH: Universal healthcare system data “unhackable”

The medical records of patients who will join the universal healthcare system are fully secured and cannot be “hacked” or accessed without authorization, according to an MoH official. As many as 330 digital medical files will be created for about 960,000 people in Port Said.