

Finance minister visits Port Said to review universal healthcare preparations

The finance minister has visited some medical facilities in Port Said to monitor the ongoing preparations for the implementation of the universal healthcare system.