

Health Insurance Organization offers treatment for all diseases; launches breast cancer screening campaign

The Health Insurance Organization is now offering all types of cancer treatment free of charge. The organization has also launched a breast cancer screening campaign across five of its hospitals in Cairo.