

MoH to conduct test run of universal healthcare system in March

The Ministry of Health will conduct a test run of the universal healthcare system in Port Said in March before implementing it in July. So far, the ministry has upgraded 21 medical centers for the new system and added 8,000 families to its database.