

MoH: Universal Healthcare system to be ready for launch in Port Said by June 30

The Ministry of Health has said that Port Said health facilities would be ready for the universal healthcare system by June 30, adding that 35 healthcare units would join the system, not 23 units as previously announced.