

Popular painkiller Rivo to be back on pharmacy shelves mid-February

The Arab Drug Company for Pharmaceuticals and Chemical Industries has announced that its popular painkiller Rivo will be available for purchase once more across pharmacies mid-February after the company was able to secure six tons of the drug's raw material. The company said it would import 50 tons of the active ingredient at a total cost of EGP 5 million.