

MoH: 1.5 mn people join universal healthcare system

About 1.468 million people have joined the universal healthcare system in phase-one governorates, the health ministry announced. In addition to that, 394,964 family medical records were filed, and 117 family medicine units were opened across the five governorates.