Communications ministry to launch universal healthcare system on onlinegov't platform June 30

The Communications ministry plans to roll outphase one of the universal healthcare system, which will be launched in Port Said, on the government's online platform on June 30.