

MoH tests job applicants seeking to join universal healthcare system

The Ministry of Health has launched pre-employment tests for applicants seeking to join the universal healthcare system. About 8,874 people, including 1,084 doctors, have applied for jobs within the system. Applicants have to pass tests in their respective fields of specialization, as well as psychometric and IT tests.