

President Al-Sisi orders the completion of preparations for the universal healthcare system

President Al-Sisi has called for ongoing preparations for phase one of the universal healthcare system to be accelerated. He called on bodies concerned, including the communications ministry, to start digitizing the scheme as planned. The president also asked government agencies to activate his offer to provide HCV treatment to one million Africans and launch an HCV screening campaign for foreigners residing in Egypt.