

Novartis organized “Reimagining Cancer Treatment” Conference

More than 350 participants from 14 universities and institutes, along with 72 speakers took part in the conference. The conference discussed the latest treatment options for seven cancers and hematologic diseases. It also outlined the Novartis vision and its commitment to patients and healthcare providers.