

HoldiPharma considers investing in Chad

A delegation from HoldiPharma has visited Chad to study investment opportunities in the central African country, including establishing a pharmaceutical plant and registering Egyptian-made drugs.