Universal healthcare system to kick off in July

The universal healthcare system will be launched in Port Said early July. During a meeting with the Parliamentary Budget Committee, the minister of health demanded additional funding of EGP 33.5 billion for future health campaigns.