

Pharmed Healthcare seeks to sell 7 drugs to Latin American countries

Pharmed Healthcare is in talks with Latin American countries to export seven medications, including antibiotics, diabetes -, blood pressure -, and cholesterol drugs. The company has already reached agreements to sell drugs to the Yemeni and the Palestinian health ministries. It plans to launch four cholesterol - and diabetes drugs in Egypt this year.