

Sanofi reinforces partnership with authorities to enhance children's health

Sanofi has marked the World Immunization Week 2019 by reiterating its commitment to raising awareness about immunization as one of the most effective ways of protecting children.