

MoH launches peripheral neuropathy treatment campaign

The health ministry has launched a training program for 600 doctors taking part in the peripheral neuropathy treatment campaign. The campaign aims to raise awareness of diabetic peripheral neuropathy which affects up to 50% of diabetes patients.