

Kidney disease screening campaign to be launched early 2020

The health ministry will launch a screening campaign for kidney diseases early 2020, to be carried out in three phases.