

MoH: Egyptian medical team screens 656 Eritrean people

The Egyptian medical team in Eritrea has so far examined 656 people for HCV, the health ministry announced. The team also offered training to 44 Eritrean medical professionals on the detection and treatment of liver diseases.