

MoH: Infection control teams offered information to 16,326 barbershops, health clubs

The health ministry's infection control teams have offered information about HCV to people working at 16,326 barbershops and health clubs across nine governorates. Phase two of the campaign will kick off in January.