

Health minister follows up on universal healthcare system implementation in Port Said

The health minister has visited Port Said to follow up on the implementation of the universal healthcare system and to make sure that everything is running smoothly. Before traveling to Port Said, the minister held a meeting with the ministry's senior officials to discuss the ongoing upgrades across South Sinai's health facilities ahead of the application of the universal healthcare system in the governorate.