

MoH accuses Utopia Pharmaceuticals, EVA Pharma of illegally promoting controlled drugs on Facebook

The health ministry has accused Utopia Pharmaceuticals and EVA Pharma of illegally promoting controlled drugs on Facebook. The ministry slammed the two companies for manipulating the system by promoting the Pregabalin-containing medication Lyrica and Lyrolin on social media, which hinders efforts to tackle opioid misuse.