

MoH: Universal healthcare not to be privatized

The Ministry of Health denied the privatization - or plans to privatize - of the universal healthcare system, pointing out that both private and public hospitals will provide services under the ministry's supervision. The ministry has signed cooperation deals with private hospitals to provide training for public hospitals' staff. The ministry also denied claims it was forcing doctors to join the new scheme.