

Universal healthcare system: Eligibility requirements for contract pharmacies announced

The General Authority for Health Control and Accreditation has announced the eligibility requirements for pharmacies that are to be contracted for the universal healthcare system.