

Cabinet: Universal healthcare system will ease financial burden of health-related spending

The recently launched, universal healthcare system will ease the financial burden of out-of-pocket medical spending, and therefore reduce poverty, the Cabinet has asserted.