

Administrative prosecution orders MoH to develop e-system for its drug inventory

The Dakahlia administrative prosecution has ordered the Ministry of Health to develop a computer-based management system for its drug inventory. The prosecution said the e-system will help manage the stock and supply of medication and prevent losses or shortages.