

PM orders speed-up of universal healthcare system preparations

During a meeting with the health minister, the prime minister has ordered the acceleration of preparations for the universal healthcare system, which is set to be launched in Port Said in July. He also called for the coordination of efforts of different ministries to ensure the success of the new system.