

Novartis holds 1st summit on cancer, hematological oncology treatment in Egypt

Novartis Pharma has held the first conference on hematological oncology and blood disease treatment in Egypt, under the theme of “Reimaging Cancer”. The conference was part of the company’s ongoing commitment towards cancer patients and ensuring their access to the best and most advanced medication available.