

ACDIMA manufactures 1st Egyptian bird flu drug

The Arab Company for Drug Industry and Medical Appliances (ACDIMA) has manufactured Egypt's first homegrown antiviral medication to treat bird flu called Oseltamivir. In 2018, the company generated an EGP 30.6 million profit after its production and sales surged by 24.6% and 30.8%, respectively.