

Pharmacists' Syndicate rejects judicial guardianship decision

The Pharmacists' Syndicate board has refused to hand over the syndicate headquarters to the judicial guardian, asserting that it had already obtained three court rulings that annul the judicial supervision decision. The temporary board said it seeks to postpone the decision until the new elections take place within the next two weeks and the Constitutional Court issues its verdict on the dispute.