

Pharmacists' Syndicate takes legal action against judicial guardianship decision

The Pharmacists' Syndicate has urged President Abdel Fattah Al Sisi to intervene and resolve the judicial guardianship crisis, indicating that the decision is unconstitutional. The Court for Urgent Matters had placed the syndicate under judicial supervision; however, the decision was later revoked by the Administrative Court. The syndicate has already filed a lawsuit before the Constitutional Court demanding the annulment of the decision.