

Pharmaceutical affairs administration: Few complaints about ceftriaxone

The health ministry's pharmaceuticals affairs administration said it received few complaints about the allergic reaction of ceftriaxone. It indicated that all the side effects of ceftriaxone disappeared after the directions for the correct use of the drug were shared and followed by patients.