

Pharmacovigilance Center releases directions for the use of ceftriaxone

The health ministry's Pharmacovigilance Center has released directions for the correct use of ceftriaxone after recent deaths caused by allergic reactions to the antibiotic.