

Pharmaceuticals division proposes solutions to end drug shortage crisis

The Chamber of Commerce's pharmaceutical division has filed a memorandum to the Ministry of Health offering solutions on how to end the drug shortage crisis. The division head indicated that an unjust drug pricing system, as well as slow procedures related to customs clearance and drug registration are the main causes behind the drug shortage issue.