

Health minister: Oncology drugs, vaccines manufacturing deal to be announced soon

The minister of health has stated that the manufacture of oncology drugs and blood products tops her ministry's agenda. The minister said she has met with official representing a US drug company, which she did not name, during a visit to New York to discuss a partnership deal for the production of oncology drugs and vaccines.