

President orders that financial solvency for the universal healthcare system be assured

President Abdel Fattah Al-Sisi has made it clear that financial solvency must be guaranteed for the universal healthcare system. The government will define segments that will be added to the subsidized coverage plan.