

President Al Sisi orders that steps are to be taken to launch universal healthcare system

The President has called for steps to be taken to launch the universal healthcare system. He also demanded the speeding up of procedures to ensure that the project can be initiated as soon as possible.