Ministry of Health will raise prices of 400 medications manufactured by state-owned pharmaceutical companies

The Ministry of Health will raise prices of 400 medications made by state-owned pharmaceutical companies in a bid to support the loss-making companies. Private pharmaceutical companies hold a 96% market share, leaving only 4% for the 11 public companies whose losses reach EGP 350 million annually.