

Ministry of Health budget to prioritize hospitals under construction

The Minister of Planning has revised the Ministry of Health's budget and investment plan, giving priority to the hospitals that are under construction as part of plans for the universal healthcare system. The focus is mainly on hospitals in Port Said, Suez, Ismailia, and Northern Sinai.