

Port Said readies for the application of the universal healthcare system

Port Said health directorate will start calculating and establishing a database of all families in the governorate for the purposes of applying the universal healthcare system.