

MoH races against the clock to upgrade hospitals that form part of phase 1 of the universal healthcare system

The Ministry of Health is seeking to upgrade all the health facilities in the governorates which will be part of phase 1 of the universal healthcare system.