

Medical staff trained on universal healthcare system

Over the course of three weeks, 240 members of the medical staff (80 members a week) received training on quality standards, patients' safety, and facility registration. The training is part of the ministry's ongoing preparations for the universal healthcare system.