

Universal healthcare system to be digital

The Ministries of Health, Military Production and Communications have signed a cooperation protocol to digitalize the universal healthcare system by setting up a network for the healthcare centers.