

Egypt's first oncology drug plant

The Ministers of Health and Military Production have discussed the latest developments concerning the oncology medications plant that is under construction. Health Minister Hala Zayed underscored the necessity of completing the factory construction according to schedule.